Why we collect and use pupil information

The personal data collected is essential, for the school to fulfil their official functions and meet legal requirements.

We collect and use pupil information, for the following purposes:

- a) {to support pupil learning
- b) to monitor and report on pupil attainment progress
- c) to provide appropriate pastoral care
- d) to assess the quality of our services
- e) to keep children safe (food allergies, or emergency contact details)
- f) to meet the statutory duties placed upon us for DfE data collections
- g) to safeguard students
- h) to support students via careers guidance services (see the Youth Support Services section)

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing pupil information are:

- for the purposes of completing statutory pupil level data returns to the DfE and for the population of a central pupil database held by Kirklees Council in accordance with the legal basis of:

{Article 6

1. Processing shall be lawful only if and to the extent that at least one of the following applies:
 - (c) Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject.

In addition, concerning any special category data:

Article 9

1. Processing of personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation, shall be prohibited.
2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply if one of the following applies:
 - (j) Processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in accordance with Article 89 (1) based on Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.}

The Education (Information about Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013 - Regulation 5 'Provision of information by non-maintained special schools and Academies to the Secretary of State' states 'Within fourteen days of receiving a request from the Secretary of State, the proprietor of a non-maintained special school or an Academy shall provide to the Secretary of State such of the information referred to in Schedule 1 and (where the request stipulates) in respect of such categories of pupils, or former pupils, as is so requested.'

The Education Act 1996 – Section 537A – states that we provide individual pupil information to the relevant body such as the Department for Education.

Children's Act 1989 – Section 83 – places a duty on the Secretary of State or others to conduct research.

Collecting pupil information

We collect pupil information via admission forms at the start of the school year or Common Transfer File (CTF) from previous school and data collection sheets via our school parent app.

Pupil data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this and we will tell you what you need to do if you do not want to share this information with us.

Storing pupil data

We hold pupil data securely for {the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule} and how we keep your data safe, {to comply with statutory requirements} please visit www.nlconline.org.uk

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- {schools that the pupils attend after leaving us
- local authorities
- youth support services (pupils aged 13+)
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- School nurse via Locala (NHS) }

Why we regularly share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data {with our Local Authority and the Department for Education} on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring. For further information go to: <http://www.kirklees.gov.uk/privacy>.

We also share pupil data with; {Schools that the pupils attend after leaving us for the purpose of continuity and statutory obligation, local authorities as this data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring, youth support services (pupils aged 13) as this data enables them to provide services such as careers advice, the Department for Education (DfE)} this is a statutory requirement for the purpose of funding, attainment reporting and monitoring, How DfE share personal data - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\), Locala (NHS) for the school health service (school nurses) also to provide data for children in reception and year 6 as part of the annual National Childhood Measurement Programme and to support immunisation programmes, school age statutory and routine medicals, and other programmes delivered by the Child Health, School Nurse and Community Paediatric Teams to children based in schools maintained by Kirklees Council. [add information for any other organisations you share data with]

Youth support services

Pupils aged 13+

Once pupils reach the age of 13 we also pass pupil information to C&K Careers which acts on behalf of Kirklees Council to provide Local Authority Youth Support Services to young people aged 13 to 19. The LA has responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds {under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.} We must provide the names and addresses of our pupils and their parents and any further information relevant to support the service's role.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services

- careers advisers

Data is securely transferred to the Youth Support Service via Anycomms+, the LA's secure transfer system, and is stored securely by the LA and held for 7 years.

For more information about Kirklees Council's youth support services please go to C&K Careers service page at <http://ckcareersonline.org.uk/>.

For additional information go to the National Careers Service page at:
<https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk/aboutus/Pages/default.aspx>.

Pupils aged 16+

For pupils aged 16+ who are attending post-16 education and training providers, we will share certain information with our LA and C&K Careers in order to secure appropriate services for them. C&K Careers act on behalf of Kirklees Council to provide Youth Support Services, including careers guidance services, as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds {under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.}

This enables the provision of the following services:

- post-16 education and training provision
- youth support services
- careers information, advice and guidance, including a service which matches young people to vacancies

Data is securely transferred to the Youth Support Service via Anycomms+, the LA's secure transfer system, and is stored securely by the LA and held for 7 years.

For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

For more information about Kirklees Council's youth support services please go to C&K Careers service page at <http://ckcareersonline.org.uk/>.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our pupils with the Department for Education (DfE) either directly or via our local authority for the purpose of those data collections, under:

We are required to share information about our pupils with our Local Authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) {under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.}

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls, which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Local Authorities

We may be required to share information about our pupils with the local authority to ensure that they can conduct their statutory duties under

- the Schools Admission Code, including conducting Fair Access Panels.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact the school office.

You also have the right to:

- to ask us for access to information about you that we hold
- to have your personal data rectified, if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- to request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- to restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing)
- to object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics
- not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you

If you have a concern or complaint about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>.

For further information on how to request access to personal information held centrally by DfE, please see the 'How Government uses your data' section of this notice.

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting the school office on 01484 382140.

How Government uses your data

The pupil data that we lawfully share with the DfE through data collections:

- underpins school funding, which is calculated based upon the numbers of children and their characteristics in each school.
- informs 'short term' education policy monitoring and school accountability and intervention (for example, school GCSE results or Pupil Progress measures).
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy (for example how certain subject choices go on to affect education or earnings beyond school)

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

Much of the data about pupils in England goes on to be held in the National Pupil Database (NPD).

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department.

It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

Sharing by the Department

The law allows the Department to share pupils' personal data with certain third parties, including:

- schools and local authorities
- researchers
- organisations connected with promoting the education or wellbeing of children in England
- other government departments and agencies
- organisations fighting or identifying crime

For more information about the Department's NPD data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>.

Organisations fighting or identifying crime may use their legal powers to contact DfE to request access to individual level information relevant to detecting that crime.

For information about which organisations the Department has provided pupil information, (and for which project) or to access a monthly breakdown of data share volumes with Home Office and the Police please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dfe-external-data-shares>.

How to find out what personal information DfE hold about you

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you are entitled to ask the Department:

- if they are processing your personal data
- for a description of the data they hold about you
- the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a 'subject access request'. Further information on how to do this can be found within the Department's personal information charter that is published at the address below:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter>

To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>.
